treatment if your transformation involves bleaching your hair, to keep it strong and nourished. Once your hair is dyed, be sure to use a hydrating or repairing hair mask once a week to keep your hair strong and healthy," says Renya.

TAKE CARE

"My top tip for caring for hair after a drastic colour change is to go easy when heat styling. High temperatures can cause fading in hair pigment, particularly for red, auburn and brunette hair," claims Renya. Opt for curling and straightening devices that have set temperatures and won't overheat or damage strands.

TAKE THE CHOP

If a colour swap isn't on the cards, consider playing with your length. We love the trending short bob. The beauty is that there's so many options; from sleek and short, relaxed layers or keep some length to play with.

"Babylights can work on any hair colour but look especially nice on blondes and light brunettes. It's all about choosing a shade that's lighter than your natural colour, so you get the dimension," says Lauren.
