CHRISTMAS STOCKING FILLER GIFT IDEAS

Christmas has crept up again at the speed of light. As much as I love shopping it is also the most stressful time as well.

So as I write my list, I find it a challenge to come up with the perfect gift for everyone. The older they get the hard it becomes, so I have put together my Christmas Guide to for you, so hoping one or two of the ideas might be what you've been hunting for.

Lets start with beauty. I'd say that the easiest person to buy gifts for is one that loves makeup and beauty. My girlfriends, I would say are the easiest to buy as most of them are mums and they tend not to buy much makeup and this is when I enjoy shopping by helping them build their makeup collection.

Below are my picks of gifts that are versatile for everyone. Either a necessity or a luxury.

1. The Beauty Emergency Must-Haves
