Citrus crush

Vitamin C is the one skincare ingredient you'll find in every beauty editor's arsenal. The natural antioxidant quickly imparts a brighter, perkier look, and in high concentrations it can have a visible effect on pigmentation and help produce collagen.

DO THE TWIST

Step aside beachy bends, the style to want right now is big, bouncy curls and the tool to master the trend is the 38mm-barrelled BaBylissPRO Ceramic Curling Tong. The thicker wand will deliver full, voluminous shapes worthy of the red carpet.

BaBylissPRO 38mm Ceramic Curling Tong, $84.95; babylisspro.com.au

CLEVER COVER

Estée Lauder's new Double Wear Radiant Concealer gives smooth, creamy coverage without creasing or caking, plus the hydrating formula delivers a healthy glow to the areas that need it most—goodbye, tired eyes!

Estée Lauder Double Wear Radiant Concealer (available in 22 shades), $44 each; esteelauder.com
