HAIR ELIXIR

This popular product now comes in a mini size. "Apart from the fact that the scent is amazing, it has four different oils that leave hair supple and soft," says L'Oréal Professionnel Artist, Brad Ngata.

STRAIGHTENER

It may be only 15cm long, but this little baby has enough power to heat up to 200°C (and it won't scorch locks).

DIFFUSER

Great for drying fine, coloured, permed or curly hair—it filters the heat so fragile locks aren't fried. Tip: "Add a cool shot of air at the end to achieve a long-lasting effect," says Pantene Expert Stylist, Barney Martin.

Parlux 3800 Hair Dryer Diffuser; 1800 251 215

$7.99

SHAMPOO & CONDITIONER

Some cheaper products can leave hair feeling heavy, but these leave zero residue, making post-wash styling easy.

SEA SALT SPRAY

Bring the beach look to your hair—minus the sand. "It gives gorgeous tousled waves without leaving strands feeling crunchy," says hairstylist, Keiren Street.

Wella Ocean Spritz;

HAIRDRYER

This tiny tool blasts strands with the same mighty gust as some much pricier dryers. "The folding handle makes it even more perfect for travel," says hairstylist, Remington Schulz.

DRY SHAMPOO

A must for every woman's desk drawer. "It offers great texture and absorbs oil, but doesn't dry hair out or leave any powdery residue," says hairstylist, Jayne Edwards.

Lee Stafford Dry Shampoo;

SMOOTHING CREME

As well as containing ceramides to boost moisture, "it leaves the hair in formulated, amazing curls," says Schulz.
