Nail It: Pretty Pastels

Pastels are a spring staple for a reason. Whether you're brightening up Derby Day black-and-whites or embracing your ladylike side at Oaks, pastel polish is the ultimate pick for the track. Soft sorbet shades are flirty and feminine, and complement any outfit. The creamy pastel finish means any shade is toned down, so you can experiment with bolder hues. From mint green and dusty lilac to candy pink and Tiffany blue, pastels and race-day go hand in hand.

Mane Event: Slick It

Slicked-back strands are the perfect trackside tresses. If you're keen to look sleek and chic but want to leave the ponytails to the horses, opt for a do that is slicked back, but left down. It's pretty and practical as it keeps the hair off the face and stays in place all day (trust us - you'll be the envy of your flyaway-plagued friends). Keep the look super sophisticated with smooth, straight locks, or make it romantic and race-friendly with wavy hair, and slick it back with an on-trend crown. Not a headwear kind of girl? You can still rock strands without accessories - the look makes a statement on its own.
