This season, it's all about '70s style, with everyone from Gigi Hadid to Cara Delevingne working the trend. We're seeing brushed-out waves, shiny lengths and effortless texture paired with flared jeans and pussy-bow blouses. Try it yourself with a clean centre part or a Brigitte Bardot-esque fringe. The trend works with any hair length, just make sure your locks are in good condition - this look is all about shiny, glossy ends.

The disco era is back - with a modern twist

TOOL KIT

To achieve this look, blowdry hair with a round brush to create loose curls. Spritz in some salt spray for texture and rake fingers through strands to get uneven, chunky waves. Roughen up roots using a defining spray and soften ends with a smoothing cream.
