PIN UP

Bobbies are back!
Here's how to nail
Steph Claire Smith's on-trend tresses

Bobby pins have long been kept behind the scenes of the beauty world: always around to support and keep things in place, but never meant to be seen. Well, that time is over! Cheap and now super chic, they take a simple style and give it some fashion-forward flair. Hair stylist Jaclyn Hnitko breaks down how to DIY.

GET THE LOOK

MAI TAI SPRITZER SEA SALT SPRAY $34 DRYBAR SEPHORA.COM.AU

▶ Start by spraying beach spray all over clean hair and blow-dry it in.

CURVE CLASSIC CURL TONG $230 GHD GHDHAIR.COM

▶ Curl hair using a small curling tong - twist small pieces of hair in random directions to get a more undone vibe.

LARGE ROSE GOLD METALLIC BRUSH $64.95 ROCK & RUDDLE DAVIDJONES.COM.AU

▶ Let the curls set, then brush your hair back towards the crown of your head.

HAIR WAX $40 SACHAJUAN SEPHORA.COM.AU

▶ Apply hair wax from the roots to the crown, and then use a fine-tooth comb to slick the hair back into place towards the crown of your head.

CLEOPATRA COMB $5.45 KRESTI-GLAMOUR.COM

BOBBY PINS $4.79 (PACK OF 50) LADY JAYNE LADYJAYNE.COM.AU

▶ Starting level with the tops of your ears, slide in several bobby pins to create an even 'V' shape at the back of your head - finish with hairspray to hold.
