BEAUTY HOW TO...

HOW TO... Be your own facialist

It's easier (and quicker) than you think.

CLEANSE

Start by massaging in a mild cleanser to remove grime and makeup (without zapping moisture). Milky varieties are gentle enough for most skin types.

TRY: CLINIQUE Take The Day Off Cleansing Milk, $45, clinique.com.au.

EXFOLIATE

Smooth skin using an exfoliant. "Formulas with AHAs can be more gentle than straight-up scrubs, but a mix of both suits most," says Ultracuticals skin therapist Alycia Lucas.

TRY: ULTRACUTICALS Ultra Clear Exfoliating Gel, $59, ultracuticals.com.

MASK

Even dry skin can benefit from a purifying mask. "Kaolin clay draws out impurities, but is mild enough for all," says Lucas. Leave it on for five minutes, then rinse.

TRY: SANCTUARY SPA 5 Minute Thermal Detox Mask, $19.95, 1300 884 411.

SERUM

Treat issues like pigmentation and irritation with a targeted serum. "If your skin is well behaved, try something rich in hyaluronic acid for a moisture boost," says Lucas.

TRY: ELLA BACHÉ Hydra-Revitalising Intensive Booster, $69, ellabache.com.au.

MOISTURISE

Finish with a lightweight lotion suited to whatever you're doing post-facial. "Your usual night cream works if you're not leaving home, otherwise go for something with SPF to protect skin," says Lucas.

TRY: TRILOGY Vital Moisturising Cream SPF15, $40.95, trilogyproducts.com.

PUCCI

HOW TO...

Trim your fringe

Can't be bothered driving to the salon for a two-minute tidy up? Here's how to DIY at home.

You'll need:

A COMB

TRY: DATELINE PROFESSIONAL Blue Celcon 500 Plastic Tail Comb, $3.95, datelinecity.com.

HAIR SCISSORS

TRY: FREESTYLE PROFESSIONAL Hair Cutting Scissors, $18.99, from thebeautyoffice.com.au.

1 First, make sure you can see what you're doing clearly (a dimly lit room + no mirror = Hannah Horvath's uneven bangs). Next, comb your clean, dry fringe forward so you can see any straggly bits that need snipping.

2 Hold your index and middle fingers horizontally (like scissors) and run them down the length of your fringe so you're left holding the ends. For a straight fringe (think: Zoëy Deschanel), hold scissors with the points facing upwards and snip evenly from side-to-side. If your fringe is a wispy, side one (like Nicole Richie), trim on an angle following the line of your hair.

HOW TO...

Multi-task with lipstick

Forgot your makeup bag? A single lippie is all you need to fancy up eyes, cheeks and lips.

First things first: not all colours work for your whole face (read: hot pink), but soft shimmery shades like apricots and creamy nudes definitely do.

ON EYES: For a subtle wash of colour, scribble the lippie straight onto your lids and blend with fingers, or etch under your lower lash-line for a luxe look.

ON CHEEKS: A light, shimmery shade works as an illuminating blush, but you can also use it to contour. Blend three dots into each cheek to highlight your apples, or smooth under cheekbones to make them pop.

TRY: BOBBI BROWN Lip Color in Calypso Shimmer, $44, bobbibrown.com.au.
