'Now I won't be afraid to try a bright lip!'

RETRO glamour

Woman's Day transforms Shelley Craft from girl-next-door to sultry siren!

As co-host of Nine's The Block, Shelley Craft sets the challenges, but was she up for one herself? When Woman's Day offered to give TV's sunniest star a retro makeover, she was only too keen. "The 60s was an iconic decade with a really strong theme in hair and make-up," says Shelley. "It was a fun time, very glamorous."

GET THE LOOK

Keep eyes subtle and skin luminous. Start with a dewy foundation and shimmery creme blush.

Next, wash a soft beige, golden eyeshadow over the entire eyelids. Apply black eyeshadow with a fine angled brush close to the top lashline.

If you're new to a bold pout, like Shelley, start with a muted bright. Choose a more orange red, as it's softer. Use a lip brush for definition.

For a sexy side sweep, wrap front sections of hair around a medium brush. Blow-dry outwards. Apply large rollers to the back. Finish with spray.
