1 Choose your brow pencil colour wisely. If you're going grey or have light-coloured hair, avoid very warm browns and use an ashy-toned pencil for a more natural finish.

2 Many women need to slightly extend the brow line out at the end to get the perfect shape. To work out where your brow should end, place a pencil near the outer corner of the nose and hold it diagonally up to meet the outer corner of the eye – that's where the brow should end.

3 With a fine-tip kohl brow pencil, use feather-soft strokes to create a natural effect, then blend well. On the first two-thirds of the brow use upwards strokes to fill and lift, then downward strokes on the outer third.

4 For wide-set eyes, draw the brows a little closer together. For close-set eyes, pluck the brows further apart from one another and refrain from placing too much colour on the first section.

5 Apply a small amount of highlighter underneath the arch of each brow to give the eyes a lift. Use an angled eyeshadow brush if you find this tricky to do with your pinky finger.

ARCH SUPPORT

1. Unsure where to use darker or lighter colour? This makes it simple.

Benefit Foolproof Brow Powder, $42

2. Grey-brown is the perfect shade for grey or blonde brows; dark brown suits brunettes; and dark grey's best for ladies with ultra-dark hair.

Mikatvonk Auto Eyebrow Pencil, $20

3. Quality tools are the base for great brows.

UBU Brow Babes Angled & Spoolie Brush Set, $9.75

4. A touch of highlighter under the brow arch has an uplifting effect.

Clinique Instant Lift for Brows, $38

5. Invest in a great pair of tweezers and never pinch your skin again.

Tweezerman, $32.95
